

The Concept of Praxis and the Situation of Marxism

1. Inherited problems and the key questions ‚Dialectic‘ and ‚Praxis‘

Fundamental ontological-epistemological and existential aspects

2. Karl Marx, Ernst Bloch and the Praxis thinkers

Dialectical thinking of Praxis towards Objektivism, Subjektivism, Economism and abstract Utopism

Splittings of the genuine idea !

3. Philosophy of Praxis and practice theories

Philosophy of Praxis

4. Frankfurt School and critical social theories

Critical social theories

5. Political Economy and Ecology Theory of the State and Imperialism

Critique of political economy and modern world-system

6. Ideas of Degrowth / Transformation / Socialism

Concepts of socio-ecological transformation and diverse alternatives

No concrete alternative!

Crisis of Marxism and the social left

7. Further development within the framework of the Concept of Praxis

The ‚Concept of Praxis‘ in the 21th century

7.1 Constitution theory and epistemology
Praxis thinking as scientific paradigm

7.2 The concept of Social Capitalism and political-economical analytics of transformation

7.3 The period of transition, the formational main contradiction and the ecological crisis
Multipolar, fragmented world relations and global diverse national statehood

8. Perspective of a transformative Sozial State Economy and an associative society
With the real alternative associated forces and emancipation of the global south