

The Concept of Praxis and the Situation of Marxism

1. Inherited problems and the key questions ‚Dialectic‘ and ‚Praxis‘

Fundamental ontological -epistemological and existential aspects

2. Marx and the Praxis thinkers

Traditional thinking of Marxism

Dialectical thinking of Praxis towards Dogmatism, Objektivism, Subjektivism, Economism and abstract Utopism

Split-up of the ideas of Practice, Marxism and Socialism !

3. Philosophy of Praxis and practice theories

Philosophy of Praxis, Hegelianism

4. Frankfurt School and critical social theories

Critical social theories

5. Political Economy and Ecology Theory of the State and Imperialism

Critique of political economy and modern world -system

6. Ideas of Degrowth / Transformation / Socialism

Concepts of socio-ecological transformation and diverse alternatives

No political-economic founded, concrete alternative!

Crisis of Marxism and the social left

7. Further development within the framework of the Concept of Praxis

Dialectical analytics of praxis

The ‚Concept of Praxis‘ in the 21th century

New historical periodisation

7.1 Constitution theory and epistemology Praxis thinking as scientific paradigm

7.2 Industrial Capitalism, Social Capitalism, Globalisation, modern World-System

7.3 Transitional societies within the epoch of transition under multipolar world-conditions The latent system-alternative, the capitalistic decadence and the ecological crisis

8. Perspective of a transformative Sozial State Economy and an associative society The alternative associated forces in the global north and emancipation of the global south